THE PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION.

President Cleveland has besued a as it has become impracticable to enforce by the ordinary course of judicial proceedings the laws of the United and remove obstructions to the mails. The President therefore warns all riotous assemblages to disperse and all good citizens from taking part in ence. The Federal troops will act with all the moderation and forbearance possible, but they will accomplish their end, and in such cases they cannot discriminate between rioters and those who encourage rioting by looking on.

It is to be hoped that the President's proclamation will obviate the use of bullets and bayonets.

ONE COURSE TO PURSUE.

It is to be regretted that Judge Ehrlich of the City Court, finds it "perplexing to decide what to do in the case of the lawyer who is alleged to have obtained which New York kept up with the strike To the Editor: five hundred dollars from a client on the situation yesterday. pretense that the money was needed to the Court to give a judgment in her favor. It is to be regretted that he considers it necessary to "think over" the expediency of bringing the lawysefore the General Term, on the groun that there will be only the unsupported charge of the client confronted by the accused lawyer's sworn denial.

There are some matters that do not admit of reflection. One of them is a charge that a Judge on the bench has of a good many Sunday drinks. bribed to make a decision in a certain way in a case before him. Judge Ehrlich's reputation forbids any belief in a story reflecting on his honor and rity as a judicial officer. But it would be a great mistake if he should fall to traist on a most thorough and searching investigation to discover whether eriof the Bar would dare to triffe with his integrity in such a manner.

THAT TREASERY SHUE.

As "The Evening World" perceived. Dr. Jenkins's "diplomatic" denial that he had received any "telegram" from the Treasury Department refusing to allow Mr. Croker to leave the Majestic In violation of the rules, covered what may be called politely a taradiddle. I was meant to imply that such a request had not been made and refused.

The Acting Secretary of the Treasury explains that the request was made and promptly refused because it did not ap pear satisfactory to his mind that he would have been justified in extending any such privilege to Mr. Croker. D Jenkins quoted as a precedent the per mission granted to the daughter of the late William Walter Pheips to leave th steamer to hasten to her father's bed side, but the Acting Secretary suggests that as Judge Phelps had been United States Minister to Germany, was member of the highest court in New Jersey and was dying, there was a slight difference between his daughter's case and that of the ex-Tammany boss an furfman, Richard Croker.

A Poppy Waist.

Elaborate waists are made of silk gauge. It has first a fitted lining, a red taffeta, and on this is diaphanor fluted gauze of brilliant poppy hue, lengthwise in clusters of three chirred tucks, leaving a puff between the clusters. The edge of the blouse i turned up and sewed permanently ; hedlining, that it may fall properly or the pointed belt of red silk. The sleeves are composed of lapping doubled ruffles. They may be worn long or else pushed up to the elbow, when they look like a mammoth flower or a lamp shade. The stock is of wide ribbon with two little ruffles at the back.

Tomato Soup.

Tomato soup is a much relished Amercan dish, and is prepared as follows: Steam, or, rather, stew slowly a mess o urnips, carrots and onions, also a stalk of celery, with half a pound of lean ham and a little bit of fresh butter over a slow fire for an hour or so. Then add wo quarts of diluted stock or of other liquor in which meat has been boiled, as also eight or ten ripe tomatoes. Ster the whole for an hour and a half, then pass through the sleve into the pas again; add a little pepper and sait, bell for ten minutes, and serve hot.

Stocks are the most becoming neckwear in the line of furnishing goods. They go with everything, they become everybody and they are dressy and essentially feminine. New Figures in the Cotillon. In Paris, lately, they have had some quite beguiling new figures in the cotillon. A butterfly chase, for instance, i which the lady flutters a paper butterfly and her would-be partner catched it in his net, is a very lively figure for dancers and onlookers. Pierrot frills and Pierrot laces cause a vast amoun of fun. Another figure is the milkmal of serious ciri, your ideas are oils, coconnut butter and nearly all the ladies and gentlemen.
